"CAPTAIN SUDS"
Two Reel Century with
EDDIE GORDON

AUG 28 1925

* * *

Eddie swings leisurely in the hammock until his ferocious stepmother enters upon the scene. Then the hard hearted female cuts the rope. But Eddie lies comfortably on another rope which extends inside the hammock. He is rapturously kissing a picture of some dizzy queen.

Stepmamma finally gets him planted at the tub. At this time his sweetie's papa is being smacked for a row of dedoes by his wife because he insists upon parking their maid on his knee. Mamma is strong for Eddie, but papa has his own candidate for his daughter's hat, a big, bold hero who is not afraid to tackle anyone half his size.

Eddie sees his sweetie and falls in a puddle while dashing to embrace her. This does not deter him and in a flash the two of them are muddied, but happy. Papa's hero, big bozo, arrives. He seizes Eddie and almost strangles him. Mama rescues him. Eddie, sweetie and bozo play blind man's buff. Eddie nearly falls off a cliff.

He challenges the big fellow to a battle. The bozo socks him all over the place. A wild eyed spectator bounces a brick off the bozo's bean just about the time he is set to slip over his haymaker. Eddie wins and is awarded the gal.
